

Welcome to Sanitars Products.

Sanitars was born in 1971 and began by producing cotton wool cotton coil for buds, pads and balls. Always at the forefront of innovation it was the first in the world to use "water tangled" technology for the production of cotton pads. Through enhancement of production technology, one of the most advanced in Europe, Sanitars markets its own brand and is the ideal partner for private labels.

BAMBOO ROUND PADS

Sanitars, always looking for innovative ways to use natural raw materials, have created a pad with pure cotton on one side and Bamboo fibre on the other.

Bamboo is a natural and biodegradable fibre, like cotton, and environmentally friendly as it is sourced from controlled cultivations.

Bamboo is rich in silicon, reinforcing skin cells and it's lightly shag fibre makes for a delicate exfoliating effect.
